Memories

Round me at twi-light come stealing
Shadows of days that are gone,
Dreams of the old days revealing
Mem'ries of love's golden dawn.

Chorus:

MEMORIES, MEMORIES,
Dreams of love so true,
O'er the sea of memory
I'm drifting back to you,
Childhood days,
Wildwood days,
Among the birds and bees,
You left me alone
But still you're my own!
In my beautiful Memories.

Sunlight may teach me forgetting
Noonlight brings thoughts that are new,
Twi-light brings sights and regretting,
Moonlight means sweet dreams of you.

Closing Thoughts

How do you know what is going to happen tomorrow?...

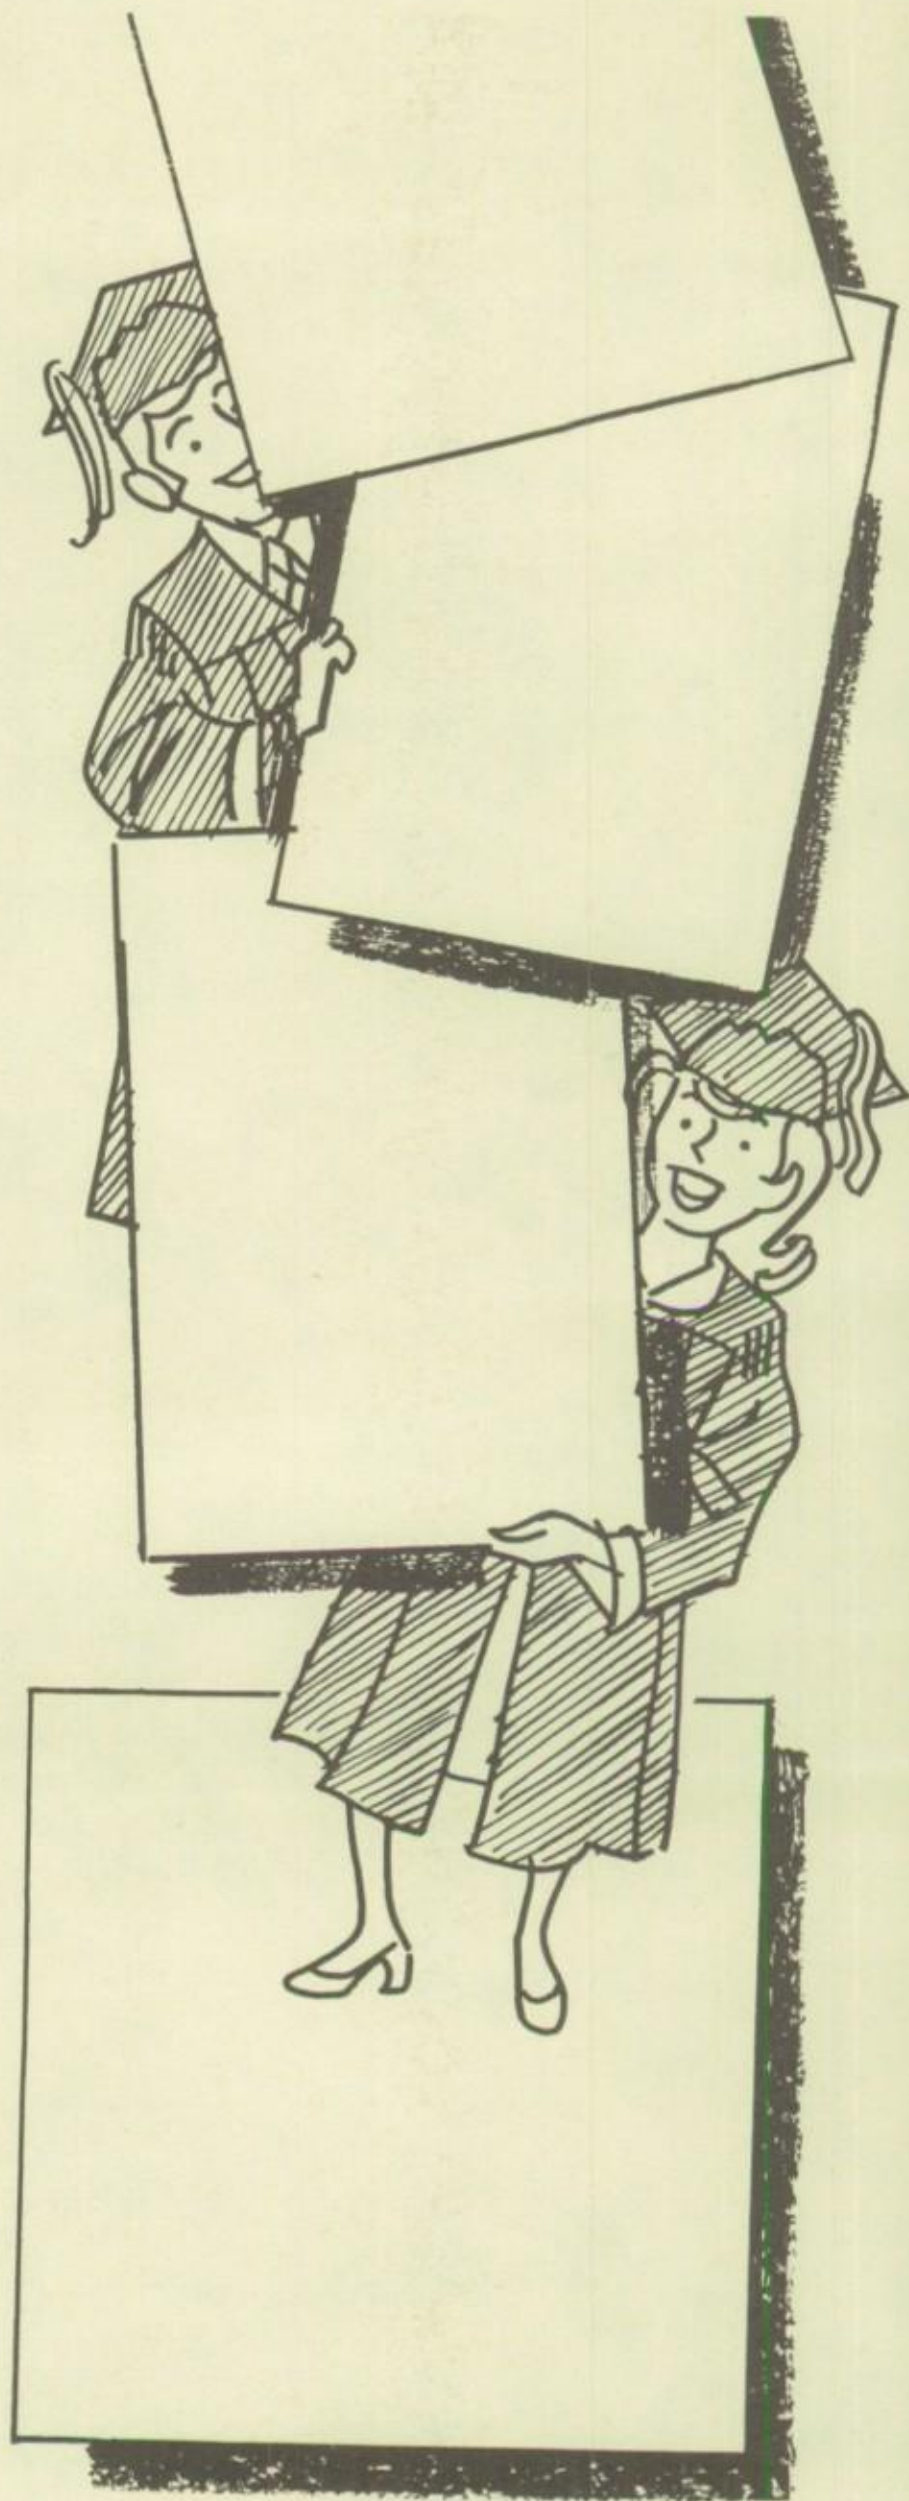

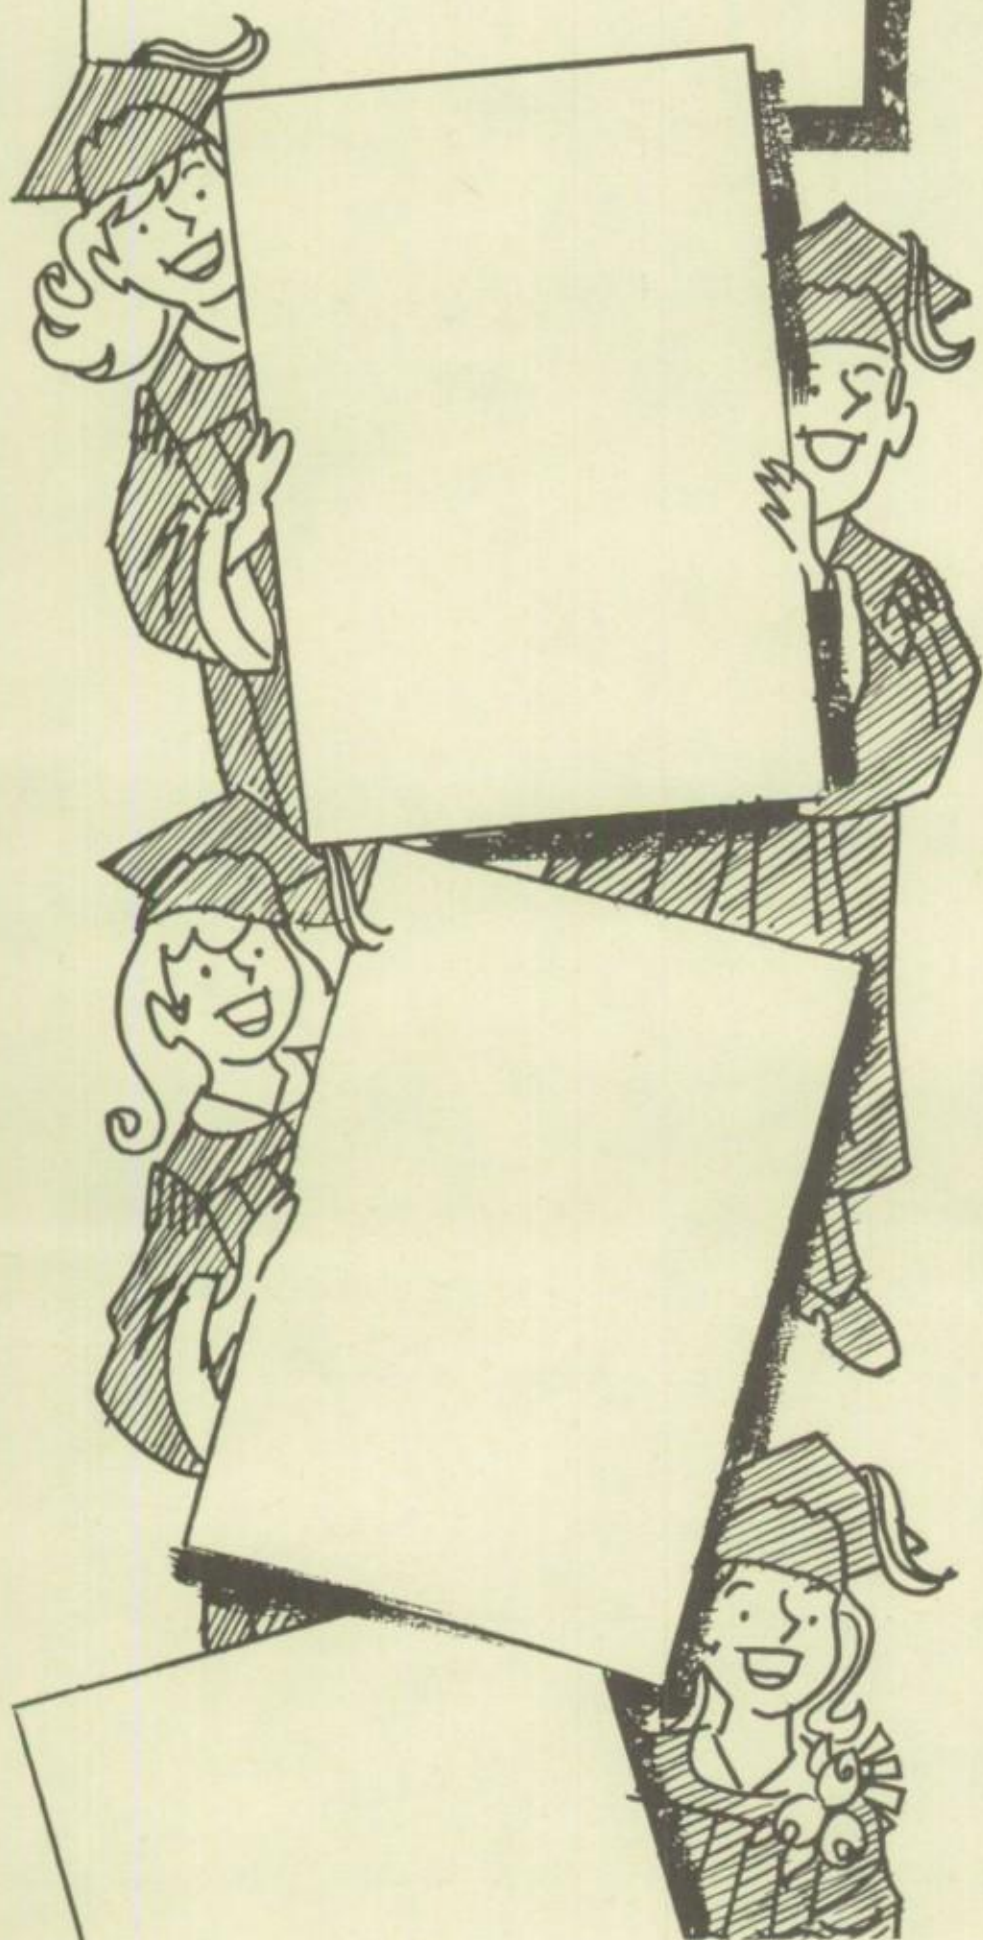

For the length of your lives is as uncertain as the morning fog.

Now you see it, soon it is gone.

For the juniors and sophomores, June only represents a break for the summer. But to the seniors, it means they must leave Widney, only to be left with their memories and experiences of their High School years.

We will all reflect upon good things that were centered around all of those we loved; it was a time to share with others and be shared with, to give and take.

For yesterday will never become tomorrow, as we leave this wonderful place...

Mr. Baker and Mrs. Adler were the two fine directors of "Guys and Dolls". They selected this musical production mainly because it was a contrast from last year's show, West Side Story, which was rather heavy and serious type of musical. "Guys and Dolls" on the other hand, is a light hearted, fun-filled comedy with a happy ending.

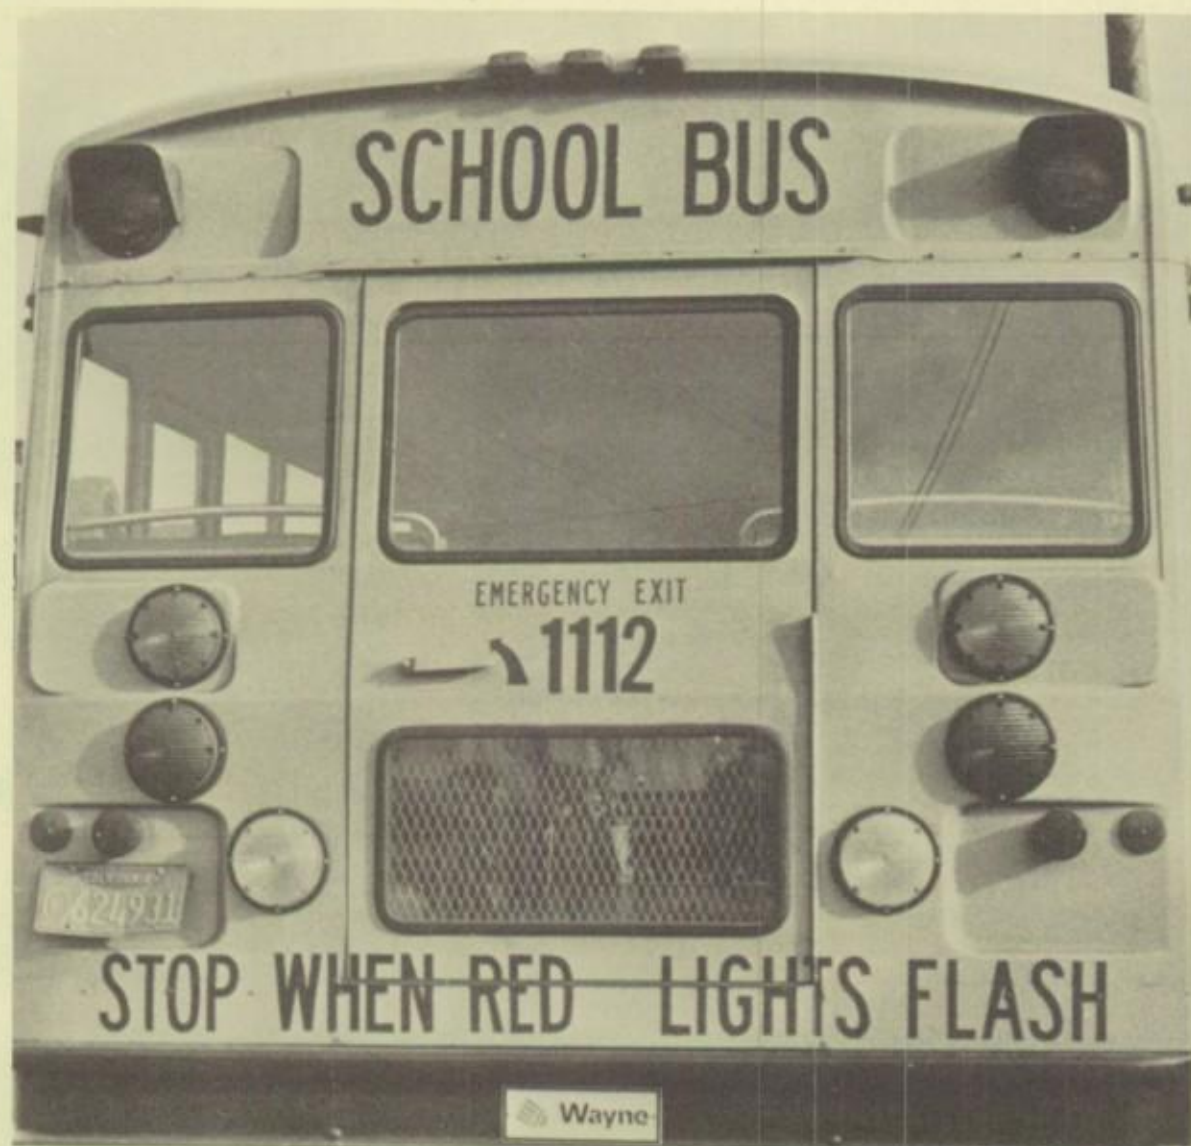

The directors were certain that all those who came to see the show would leave out humming or whistling some of the fine music that they heard and would long remember some of the funny scenes and characters from this outstanding show.
